1. INTRODUCTION

The Board of Management of Tyrrelstown ETNS recognizes the importance of having a Critical Incident Management Plan (CIMP) in place as outlined in Responding to Critical Incidents, Guidelines for Schools, NEPS, 2007.

2. AIMS

The aims of this CIMP are to

- Define a critical incident
- Outline the CIMP team
- Highlight how the plan shall be communicated
- Record a list of emergency contacts

3. SUPPORTIVE ENVIRONMENT

TETNS creates a supportive and caring environment where the ethos is based on respect for everyone as individuals and the promotion of a positive atmosphere in which each child can learn and grow to reach their full potential. The SPHE curriculum is utilized to address such issues as self-esteem, communication skills, grief, loss and coping skills, see SPHE Plan, 2011. The Code of Behaviour also promotes a positive and supportive environment where all children are valued and respected.

4. DEFINITION OF A CRITICAL INCIDENT

1. Individual pupil critical incident/tragedy

It is the aim of the Board of Management to keep the school as a 'Safe Place' for all our pupils. In this instance this means not overstressing the emotional side of events and consequences for our pupils. Checking guidelines and consultation shall take place with relevant experienced authorities a.s.a.p. following any individual tragedy. As a general rule, the tragedy shall be acknowledged by the class teachers in class and by the school by way of school assemblies whereby the tragedy is acknowledged, spoken about briefly – but not dwelt upon. Observation shall be kept by all members of staff for signs of individual pupil or group stress or emotional disturbance and professional advice may be sought.

2. Relation/Friend/Neighbour of pupil type incident/tragedy

It is the aim of the Board of Management to keep the school as a 'Safe Place' for all our pupils. Consultation shall take place with relevant experienced authorities a.s.a.p. following any family or neighbourhood incident/tragedy. As a general rule, the event shall be acknowledged by the class teachers in class and by the school by way of 'school assemblies' whereby the tragedy is acknowledged, spoken about briefly – but not dwelt upon. Observation shall be kept by all members of staff for signs of individual pupil or group stress or emotional disturbance and professional advice may be sought.

3. Local Community/ National/International incident/tragedy

It is the aim of the Board of Management to keep the school as a 'Safe Place' for all our pupils. Consultation shall take place with relevant experienced authorities a.s.a.p. following any local community/ national or international tragedy. As a general rule, the tragedy shall be acknowledged by the class teachers in class and by the school by way of school assemblies whereby the tragedy is acknowledged, spoken about briefly – but not dwelt upon. Observation shall be kept by all members of staff for signs of individual pupil or group stress or emotional disturbance and professional advice may be sought.

5. THE CIMP TEAM

APPENDIX A

This appendix contains a sample letter for parents for communication regarding a critical incident.

Dear Parents,

The school has experienced (the sudden death, accidental injury) of one of our students. We are deeply saddened by the deaths/events.

(Brief details of the incident, and in the event of a death, perhaps some positive remembrances of the person lost)

We have support structures in place to help your child cope with this tragedy.
(Elaborate)

It is possible that your child may have some feelings that he/she may like to discuss with you. You can help your child by taking time to listen and encouraging them to express their feelings. It is important to give truthful information that is appropriate to their age.

If you would like advice you may contact the following people at the school.
(Details).

Principal

APPENDIX B

Sample letter for parents when requesting consent for involvement of outside agencies.

Dear Parents,

Following the recent (tragedy, death of x) we have arranged professional support for students in school who need particular help. (x...) is available to help us with this work.
