1. Introduction

The purpose of this policy is to document outline the procedure to be followed regarding fund raising in the name of the school.

2. Procedures for Fundraising

The name of the school, “Tyrrelstown Educate Together National School”, or any derivative of our name, cannot be used by any person or group without the express permission and prior sanction of the Board of Management. The Board of Management is the only body that can sanction fundraising in the name of the school. The Board of Management shall discuss, plan and prioritise for events in advance.

At all times the aims and objectives and finances of the school will be the major factor in decisions by the Board in these matters. The board shall have ethically appropriate policies in relation to possible permissible sponsors / fundraising events and the school and all it’s activities shall, as far as possible, remain a commercial sponsor free zone / environment. The Board of Management shall however retain the discretion to approve or reject all or any commercial / fundraising proposal/s.
